

We are opposed to the reopening of the Idaho Maryland Mine because of concerns about the possible effects the dewatering might have on our well. Although the company that is developing the mine assures us that there should be no effect on our well, as members of the BMHA, we have hired 2 hydrogeologists that disagree with the companies findings.

Larry and Joy Ransdell